

Greetings Champion!

Blessings and increase to you in the mighty name of Jesus.

It is time to give up the blame, justification, rationalization, and excuses.

It's easy to evaluate where you are at and recognize that you are not where you want to be in certain areas of your life. You may try to justify to yourself and to the rest of the world why you are not where you want to be.

The problem is by focusing your thoughts on "why" you can't have what you want; you create or validate and reinforce your belief concerning why you can't have what you desire from God and life. "Can't have" becomes your belief and your results.

Stop giving your dominant attention to what is wrong, and stop making excuses "why" you can't have what you desire. God said that you CAN have what you desire in Psalm 37:4 and Mark 11:24.

The reason you want to focus on the blessings of God, promises of God, and positive aspects of your life, is to tip the balance of your thoughts to what you desire rather than the lack of it.

Jesus told us that, "desire" is an essential ingredient in having your prayers answered. In Mark 11:24, He said, "What things soever you DESIRE when you pray, believe you receive them, and you shall have them."

Meditate on your desires, not your fears.

Pastor Glen