

Greetings Champion!

The Lord shall command “The Blessing” upon you... (Deuteronomy 28:8).

It’s important for you to know that what God commands, happens. God has commanded us to be blessed, and we really need to find out what that means.

Each of us need to realize that wrong thinking and wrong believing are our enemies! Our real enemies! And we’ve got to treat them as such.

Wrong thinking and wrong believing have been responsible for not just our mediocre lives, but for a lot of heartache, trouble, and pain in our lives.

What you and I must do in order to prosper and become more is believe that God has made us deserving, qualified, suitable, worthy, appropriate, fit, capable, equipped, competent, and adequate in every way, in His sight. That’s really a big part of what right-standing (righteousness) with God means.

You have to regard yourself as approved, certified, and licensed by God to prosper and thrive and receive everything He owns.

“He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?” (Romans 8:32, NIV)

GET THIS: If God our Father didn’t withhold the agonies of the whipping post and cross from His beloved Son, Jesus, in order to redeem us, why would He now withhold from us what those agonies purchased?

It only makes sense that God wants you to have everything Jesus died to give you. “He was made poor that you might be made rich” (2 Corinthians 8:9), and have “Life more abundantly” (John 10:10).

Confidence to receive from God requires the courage to accept your imperfections and past failures and still feel good about yourself because you believe what God says about you.

Once you believe you are God says you are, then, and only then, can you have what God says you can have.
