

Greetings Champion!

There is a common denominator throughout the entire Bible concerning “How to release miracles.” Of course, it is God who performs the miracle, but He requires us to decree what should be, to change what is.

The Bible calls this principle, “Calling those things that be not as though they are” in Romans 4:17.

“Calling those things that being not as though they are” is a difficult lesson for many Christians to learn. The reason is because many feel they would be lying if they spoke about being in possession of things that couldn't be seen and touched this moment. But it's not a lie when you speak the Word of God.

It is possible to own a car and have the “pink slip” proving ownership before you are in physical possession of the car. God's Word of promise to you is your “pink slip” telling you what you have in Christ, even before you experience it.

Faith is called the “Title-Deed of things hoped for” in some translations of Hebrews 11:1. Your faith gives you the “pink slip” to what you're believing God for.

God Himself spoke about things as if they were facts, even when every natural evidence seem to indicate the opposite. You must do the same.

I'm devoting the month of May to talk about the power of our words on my daily radio broadcast. I'm also encouraging my listening audience and all my friends to get my book, “Decree Your Miracle.”

Find out how, through decreeing faith filled words, you can receive your heart's desire and the miracles that would make your life amazing.

You can hear my radio broadcast 24/7 and obtain my book, “Decree Your Miracle,” at pillarsoffait.com.

God wants the rest of your life – to be the best of your life,
