

Greetings Champion!

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him (Ephesians 1:17).

Most of the information we use to function in life has come to us through our five physical senses: hearing, tasting, smelling, feeling, and seeing.

Hopefully, you've already come to the place of understanding that our senses can deceive us. We often accept false concepts, values, ideas, and beliefs that have come to us through the conscious phase of our mind.

The conscious mind must always fill in the blanks whenever it sees something unusual, out of order, or something it doesn't understand. Sometimes the blanks that get filled in are absurd thoughts and judgments that cause us to believe incorrect things, thus penalizing us in life.

The conscious mind is objective. It observes, rationalizes, and makes instant judgment calls about things without all the facts being present.

To the conscious mind, "TRUTH" is anything that lines-up with our previously established beliefs.

Our goal must be to be led by the Spirit of God and by our human spirit within us.

God tells us not to judge after the seeing of our eyes or the hearing of our ears, but in righteousness shall we judge (Isaiah 11:3-4).

We must endeavor to get quiet before God and listen to our heart, and to our intuition. God said, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God" (Romans 8:14).

God really does want to speak to you from the inside, while your senses want to speak to you from the outside.

Get quiet before God and ask Him to speak to your heart, and He will.
