

Greetings Champion!

Divine health and supernatural wealth to you in the name of Jesus!

Don't listen to the naysayers!

The story is told that when inventor, Robert Fulton, announced he was going to demonstrate his new steam powered boat, the naysayers laughed and lined up along the riverbank shouting, "It will never go—it will never go!"

Undeterred by the negative criticizers, Fulton started the fire in the boiler and the paddle wheels started turning and the boat started to move. Suddenly these same doubters and critics shouted, "It will never stop—it will never stop!"

Your family and friends may not celebrate the fact that you are getting out of your limiting little box and going for the gold. So what! This precious life of yours is worth living to the max. Don't let the little people with their little, obscure, and mediocre lives put a lid on, or limit your potential and dreams.
