

Greetings Champion!

As strange as it sounds, your thoughts and words make you magnetic to certain things.

If you realize you are in the process of attracting what you do not want, it is important to STOP the negative attraction immediately by changing the direction and focus of your thoughts and what you've been talking about.

To continue in a negative frame of mind guarantees undesirable results.

This is where quoting the Scriptures that promise you what you desire are important. Your thoughts, words, and feelings might be fixated on failure. The Word of God promises you success and victory.

Use the Word to redirect your thoughts to what you do desire, which will change how you feel and put a magnetic pull on what you do want.

Whenever you feel the negative emotion of fear, stress, depression, or worry, recognize that your inner guidance system is telling you two very important things.

First, there is something that you desire, otherwise you would be feeling no emotion at all, and secondly, you are not focused on what you desire but are focused in the opposite direction of what you want.

Remember, the Bible character, Job, didn't want calamity, but focused on it continually and got it (Job 3:25). Most people will swear that they want prosperity, but they only focus on lack, therefore, they get only lack. Most want success but focus on opposition and failure, therefore they fail.

You need to slow down enough to get in touch with how you feel, because your feelings are your inner guidance system. Before your results and circumstances indicate to US what and how you have been thinking, your feelings and emotions indicate to YOU what you have been thinking. Use this early warning and inner guidance system to your advantage.

Thinking good and feeling good,

Pastor Glen
