

Greetings Champion!

"He will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on him" (Isaiah 26:3).

Worry repels the things you desire and attracts calamity.

You get what you habitually think, which may not be what you want. If you feel good – you can be sure you are thinking correctly and attracting your desires.

Good thoughts generate good feelings and emotions.

If you feel agitated or stressed, your thinking has been wrong for some time and you are attracting what you really don't want. It is not possible to worry about what you want and at the same time have faith for what you want.

Your feelings are your thought indicators.

Feelings indicate thought quality. Thought quality is never determined by what is happening in your life – good or bad. It is always determined by what you think about what is happening.

Have you ever heard it said, "Don't make mountains out of molehills?" This means, "Don't exaggerate your challenges." As a victorious Christian, you should make molehills out of mountains in your thinking.

Feelings are your own personal GPS thought locator. Feelings tell you where you are in relation to where you want to be. Feelings tell you the quality and appropriateness of your thoughts.

If you desire peace, wealth, excellent health, happiness, and blessings, then think thoughts that give you those feelings. If, on the other hand, every day you feel stress, lacking, and unhappiness – your emotions are trying to alert you that you are getting further and further away from your desires.

Stay in perfect peace by thinking peaceful thoughts,

Pastor Glen
