

Greetings Champion!

God wishes above all things that you prosper (3 John 2).

The Bible clearly teaches that any believer can get whatever he needs, wants, and desires from God if he will literally just do what God says to do.

I am not pretending that I have had every one of my prayers answered. In fact, I have had thousands that have not been answered the way I prayed. I must be big enough of a person to know that there can't be a problem with God. I have been the problem.

I must also acknowledge that God cannot lie, His promises are true, and He intends for me to have my every prayer answered according to His promise. For that reason, I must totally go by what the Word says and not by what my experiences says.

So, I want to give you some promises and principles of prayer that I have rediscovered and want us all to experience.

Jesus said, "All things, whatsoever you shall ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive" (Matthew 21:22).

The believer cannot fail to have his every prayer answered if he will be as determined about refusing to accept failure, as most Christians seem determined to fail regarding asking and receiving.

Latch on to the fact that, "ALL the promises of God are yes and amen" (2 Corinthians 1:20), and the purpose of God's promise is its fulfillment.

A right relationship with God is the true ground of asking and receiving (Matthew 7:7-11; John 17:21).

With the proper relationship with God it becomes our family right, legal right, redemptive right, and "Child of God" right to ASK AND RECEIVE ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING that the Father has promised His own children.

Stay in faith,

Pastor Glen
