

Greetings Champion!

The father told his older prodigal son, "All that I have is yours, and at any time you could have had anything you ask for" (Luke 15:31, paraphrased). "All that I have is yours," is God's attitude towards you also, because you are His son and His heir (1 John 3:1 and Romans 8:17). That's why Jesus told the story of the prodigal son. To show you the forgiving, loving, caring, restoring, gracious, and giving Heavenly Father you now have, in God.

There are no impossibilities with God or with the believer who will simply believe God and treat Him as an honest being. (Matthew 17:20, 21:21-22; Mark 9:23, 11:22-24; John 14:12-15, and John 15:7, 16.)

Possibilities in prayer are unlimited, and we should be determined and diligent to obtain every blessing of the New Covenant. The world is dying for, and the church is crying out for a program that really works and demonstrates real supernatural results.

Jesus said, "Nothing shall be impossible unto you" (Matthew 17:20).

Certainty of answered prayer is expressed throughout the Old Testament as well as the New Testament. Answered prayer is a part of "the blessing of Abraham." And to give you "the blessing of Abraham" is one of the primary reasons why Jesus came (Galatians 3:13-14).

Let us call forth greater manifestations of God,

Pastor Glen
